

Greetings, NSEE SIGs & Regions!

The National Society for Experiential Education would like to become your 411 for information and assistance on Experiential Education. We are creating an “expert” list to provide a quick reference for advice when you, our members, need it most. We would like to ask for your help in identifying professionals in the field who have demonstrated an expertise in our special interest group (SIG) areas of experiential education:

- Arts & Culture
- Assessment
- Co-op & Internship
- Democracy
- Social Justice
- Active Learning in the classroom
- Education Abroad
- Service Learning

What makes an “Expert”? Nominations for Experiential Education Experts should be an NSEE member, comfortable with one of the SIG topics listed above. We are specifically looking for professionals who have significant experience and/or publication(s) in the area in which they will be advising and who are willing to share their advice and resources with others.

We would like to ask you to nominate yourself or those you think would be good contributors. Please feel free to share the attached nomination form with your professional contacts. Nominations will be accepted at hbrust@talley.com through Nov. 13. NSEE Experts will be selected based on their meeting the criteria above, our need for advisors in the area of expertise, and a brief conversation to discern willingness to accept the role. Experts selected will be announced via email and listed on the website.

We’re looking forward to coordinating this valuable resource for our members.
